AMUSEMENTS.

Minute Maddern. At the Memphis Theater to-night Minnie Maddern will begin an engagement of three nights and a ma ince with her successful society drams. In Spite of All. The Mail and Express seys: "Mirs Minnie Maddern possesses a power, an indescribable something by which she holds her auditors spelland and nestles into their hearts. This, and a knowledge of her art and a charming manner made her performance the first night a delightfully natural and pleasing one. She is now quite as fascinating as she was on that occasion, with the addition of a power which then she hardly dured trust herself to show. In her acting of the role now she displays more treedom and desper feeling in her moments of and deeper feeling in her moments of anguish, and is more pronounced in depic ing the varied shades of emotion which mark the character. While

"Luve and Law."

The Milton Nobles engry-ment, which begins at the Memphia Chester Monday night, closes the regular season. The sale of seats opens Friday. Monday night Love and Law will be given for the benefit of Manager Frank Gray, who should have a crowded house. It has been a tough theatrical season, and if every scat could be taken on the first night of the last regplar attraction it would be quite a com pliment to the overworked manager.

The Travelers' Club.

This thriving organization, com-posed of 120 of the most enterprising, active and intelligent commercial travelers of Memphis, kert open house last night, and right royally did they entertain their guests. The punch-bowl was filled with an apparently inexhaustible supply of a stimulating and palatable beverage, and the feast of reason and flow of soul was not neglected. James Carden recited Shamus O'Brien. Carden recited Shamus Obnen.
Ryan and other local ce ebrities sang, Col. Harvey Mathes made an eloquent and witty speech, Menken got off a happily worded toast, rounded off by a funny anecdote, and everybody generally had a glorious time. Merchants from the country who happened in dropped in in a friendly way, and liked it to well that they stayed with the boys, and a merry time they had of it. It seemed as if all Memphis was there. The crowd kept changing, some went, others came, but everybody was welcome, and the spirit of fellowship prevailed as it only can among traveling men. It was nearly midnight before the fun was over and everybody had retired, voting the Travelers Club and their first reception a genuine success

The following from the Manchester Eram ner and Times explains itself: I am sure that every one interested must approve of the letters you have published upon the attempt to raise the price of cotton. It is simply the action of an American ring, and it will be nothing short of a robbery of English spinners if they can get us to pay one or two millions of money more for the remainder of the crop. My conviction is that for the last two conviction is that for the last two or three months upon every 100,000 weight of yarns sold there is a loss to the spinner of £100, and any advance in cotton will only add to the spinner's loss. One of the largest merchants on the Exchange stated yesterday that we might depend upon it no advance whatever would be paid for goods, and any advance in the price of cot-ton would come out of the pockets of the spinner and manufacturer. The Pride of the Mississippi Valley.

A New York drummer, who travels over the entire country, was bragging about the advantages of living in Gotham, but he had to admit that in the Misfit Clothing Parlors, 262 Second street, Memphis has the best and cheapest clothing house in the United States. He also had to concede that the Memphis girls THE FACT Is, we have these goods are the prettiest in the country and now in store, which we offer to the trade at as low prices as they can be that the men here, as a general rule, found elsewhere. We guarantee them to be the GENUINE Geo. Hocker are better dressed than those of any boots, and adapted to the present sea-American city.

Memphis men can afford to dress well. The Misfit Clothing Parlors gives them the advantage of buying fine merchant tailor's clothing at about one-half its actual value.

The Misfit Clothing Parlors believe in bragging when it has something to braz about. We have been busy during the past two months hunting up bargains for Spring. We now have our Parlors packed with beautiful new goods. Better still, our prices are wonderfully low. Come quick and inspect these handsome goods.

GOODBAR, LOVE & CO., J. G. SCHMIDT & SON. BOOTS AND SHOES. MEMPHIS, TENN., March 10, 1886,

TO THE TRADE: We made a contract some months ago with George Hocker, the manufacturer of the celebrated "Hocker Boot," for the exclusive handling of his boots at wholesale in this market, and have advertised in various newspapers to this effect. We notice recently that another wholesale shoe house in Memphis is advertising that they have George Hocker's calf boots for sale, manufactured for the spring trade. In order that we should not be placed in a false attitude before the trade, we wrote to Mr. Hock-er on February 27th to know whether or not he had sold his calf boots to any other wholesale house in Mem-phis, and we herewith publish his
